

Ethnic Minority Achievement Service

EMAS

NATIONAL EDUCATORS' CONFERENCE

Beyond Induction

Raising the Attainment and Supporting the Integration of All New Arrivals

30 April 2008 • 9.00am – 3.30pm
Barnsbury Centre • Offord Road • London

Main Speakers and Presentations

Beyond Induction: Raising Attainment Through Participation

Marion Rosen Headteacher, Keir Hardie Primary School, London Borough of Newham

Pupil Mobility, Attainment and Progress at KS1-KS4: What Research Tells Us

Dr. Steve Strand Associate Professor, University of Warwick

EU Migration: Key National Issues

Claude Moraes, MEP previously Director of Joint Council for the Welfare of Immigrants

Supporting the Integration of Refugee Children and Young People

Shared Futures Salusbury World/Comic Relief

Workshops

The day will also include participatory workshops run by experienced practitioners, including:

Sofia Ali previously the national strategies' consultant for the New Arrivals Excellence Programme, on an inclusive approach to the induction of pupils new to English

Bill Bolloten education consultant, on supporting the inclusion of new arrivals from new EU member states

Islington Schools sharing their effective practice on teaching pupils new to English, good assessment practice and engagement with families, cultural diversity as part of the core curriculum, teaching KS4 EAL new arrivals, and involving parents from particular groups in their children's learning. Some schools will be using film footage to illustrate their practice.

For further information, please contact:

Joan Clarke, Ethnic Minority Achievement Service, Cambridge Education @ Islington T: 020 7527 5899

PROGRAMME FOR THE DAY

MORNING

- 9.00 Registration; coffee, tea and pastries
- 9.30 Welcome; Eleanor Schooling, Director of Education Services, Islington
- 9.40 Dr Steve Strand, Associate Professor, University of Warwick
- 10:15 Marion Rosen, Headteacher, Keir Hardie Primary School, Newham
- 11:00 Refreshments
- 11:30 Participatory workshops

AFTERNOON

- 12:30 Lunch
- 1.30 Welcome; Cllr Ursula Woolley, Executive Member for Children and Young People
- Claude Moraes, MEP
- 2:00 Participatory workshops
- 3.00 Shared Futures, Salusbury World/Comic Relief
- 3.30 Evaluations and refreshment

Beyond Induction: Raising the Attainment and Supporting the Integration of All New Arrivals

BOOKING FORM

Name: School/Organisation:

Address:

Postcode: Local Education Authority:

Email: Daytime Tel:

Costs: (includes lunch)

Islington schools: £60.00 + VAT

All other boroughs: £175.00 + VAT

Do you require: Wheelchair Access?

Vegetarian Lunch?

Please indicate your choice of workshops

(in order of preference 1,2,3; please complete 1-7. Each person is allocated two workshops)

1. 'Include me': an inclusive approach to the induction of pupils new to English at KS3 (secondary and of interest to primary)
2. Supporting black and minority ethnic parents' involvement in their children's learning (primary and of interest to secondary)
3. Cultural diversity as part of the core curriculum (primary and of interest to secondary)
4. Assessment, tracking progress and meeting each students' needs (secondary)
5. Supporting the inclusion of new arrivals from the new European Union member states (primary and secondary)
6. Supporting new arrivals who are new to English: building on initial assessment through good practice in the classroom (secondary and of interest to primary)
7. Ensuring access, inclusion and the academic success of unaccompanied KS4 new arrivals from overseas (secondary)

Please complete this booking form and return to: joan.clarke.camb-ed@islington.gov.uk or Joan Clarke, Block C, Barnsbury Centre, Offord Road, London N1 1QF T: 020 7527 5899 F: 020 7527 5556

Closing date for registration is April 16th 2008